

Research Allocations Committee (1998-99)

Large Grant Awards

#	Name	Dept./Div.	Title of Proposal	Amount
99-L-03	Rand, R.	Physics and Astronomy	Ring galaxies - What happens when galaxies collide?	$4,832.00
99-L-05	Ciesielski, K.	Psychology	Brain subsystems for memory and learning in obsessive-compulsive disorder: EEG, MEG and fMRI, Structural MRI and neuropsychological studies.	$7,480.00
99-L-07	Salinger, A.	Art and Art History	Interior worlds: New Mexico.	$7500.00
99-L-08	Ahluwalia, H.	Physics and Astronomy	Prediction of galactic cosmic ray modulation by coronal mass ejections at solar cycle 23 maximum.	$7,500.00
99-L-09	Dinwoodie, D.	Anthropology	.The language of place and social change in Native North America.	$3,959.00
99-L-11	Fresch, C.	English	Milton Variorum Project, phase one (1667-1970): Paradise Lost IV .	$6,476.00
99-L-12	Fonoroff, N.	Media Arts, College of Fine Arts	Radiant Eyes (working title), a 16mm film.	$7,500.00
99-L-13	Ramenofsky, A	Anthropology	Compositional analysis of stag and other mining residues from Comanche Springs (LA14904).	$5,028.00
99-L-14	Turner, T.	Biology; Museum of Southwestern Biology	Reconstructing the historical Rio Grande ecosystem: A stable isotope study of fish communities using museum specimens.	$6,090.00
99-L-15	Slaughter, J.	History	Gender, reconstruction and the "Economic Miracle" in Italy, 1945-63.	$5,034.00
99-L-16	Powell, J.	Anthropology	Craniofacial change in North American Indians: Testing the continuity and replacement models of peopling of the New World.	$5,811.00

TOTAL AMOUNT AWARDED: $67,210.00